About AIESEC

AIESEC is an international platform for young people to explore and develop leadership potential to have a positive impact on society. This golden platform to create impact is always open for AIESECer and non-AIESECers.

AIESEC-LC-HKU HKUSU is first local chapter in Hong Kong with more than 46 years of legacy. We envision to being the first-choice platform to nurture leaders with global mindset in University.

About AIESEC Conference

Conference, in AIESEC context, represents an unusually great learning opportunity, generally ranging from 2 days to more than a week. In each conference, adhere to its unique theme, delegates gather to learn through different types of activities, like workshops, interactive games, seminar and create output to spread the ideas created and the knowledge acquired within and after the conference. In addition, conference, particularly for an international one like Ripples 2013, enables delegates to build their global networks by meeting new friends and thus widen their horizons. Conference, with these unique features, has been an increasing important occasion where inspiring and innovative ideas are brought out.

About AIESEC HKU Ripples International Conference 2013

This year, with the theme of 'Social Innovation & Social Enterprise', Ripples International Conference 2013 aims at providing a platform for passionate students to inspire each other, and to spread the knowledge and spirit of social entrepreneurship.

It features five days of inspiring and exciting activities, including workshops, site visits and stimulating discussion. Leading social entrepreneurs and organizations will be invited to give speeches and sharings on the current development of social enterprises in the Asia Pacific Region. Our on-street campaign – Ripples Day will give you a chance to interact with the local community and raise public's awareness of certain social issues. Most importantly, the international setting of our conference guarantees a wide range of ideas from students around the globe. It will be a great platform for you to socialize in a diverse cultural environment and enjoy the process of cultural exchange!

Therefore, do grab this chance now and better utilise the time in early summer break!
