

Recruitment Notice – Student Ambassadors for CEDARS Orientation for Non-Local Students

Dear Students,

The coming academic year will be an exciting year for the University and all of you! We will be receiving 2 cohorts of students. Around 1800 undergraduate and exchange students from outside HK will arrive in September.

CEDARS is now recruiting student ambassadors for our Orientation for Non-local Students which will be held on 14 September, 2012 (Friday). This orientation aims at smoothening students' transition to University life in HK.

Student Ambassadors are expected to be good team players with good communication skills and fluency in English.

Your role:

Student ambassadors will be assigned to one or more of the following tasks:

- mix and mingle with the newly arrived students
- campus tour guides
- reception desk
- orienteering game
- crowd control
- guest reception
- various duties at the orientation

Work hours: From 9:00 am to 4:00 pm on September 14

Successful candidates are also required to attend a briefing session in early September.

Your rewards:

- Make new friends
- Receive service points under the "CEDARS Reward Scheme" <<http://cedars.hku.hk/crss/index.shtml>>
- Free lunch on the day
- HK$50 book coupon
- Guided tour to the new centennial campus

If you are interested to join our team, please send an email to Ms. Christina Wong at <chriswfw@hku.hk> on or before 16 July, 2012 with (1) your full name; (2) university number; (3) email address; (4) mobile phone number; (5) reasons for your application (not more than 200 words).

Should you have any queries, please contact Ms Christina Wong at 2859 2305.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Cheers,

Mrs. Sylvia Wong
