

Dear all,

Do you find international issues fascinating? Would you like to travel abroad, experience exotic cultures and make new friends? Do you desire a challenging yet rewarding opportunity to hone your personal abilities like public speaking, negotiating, and conflict resolution? Are you passionate about development of global citizenship and fostering of spirit of youth pioneering?

If any of your answers to the above questions is YES, you shall not miss out any opportunities that The University of Hong Kong Model United Nations (HKUMUN) shall offer!

HKUMUN is a newly established student body, committing itself to the training of HKU students into outstanding delegates and well preparing them to fruitful participation in various international MUN conferences, among which the Harvard World Model United Nations (Harvard WorldMUN) being the current major target.

Founded in 1991, the Harvard WorldMUN has blossomed into one of the most prestigious college-level Model UN conferences throughout the world, with its footprint already left in twenty-three cities on six continents.

The 24th session of Harvard WorldMUN will be held in Seoul from 16th to 20th March, 2015. We are now recruiting passionate candidates to become our potential delegates. Successful applicants will be provided extensive training opportunities in various forms including MUN101, research meetings, special workshops, and pre-conference simulations, etc.

Participants will be entitled to partial subsidy from Office of International Student Exchange (OISE). Interested graduate students are also highly welcome yet they are not eligible for the official subsidy.

Candidates with a long-term commitment to MUN issues are also welcome to apply to join us as one of the HKUMUN executive committee members.

If you wish to realize your passion and potential, this is a really brilliant opportunity not to be missed! Please JOIN us in this exciting and rewarding journey, to experience, to learn, to think, to express, to communicate, and hopefully, to make a difference to the world for the better!
